

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of unfair partisanship which does not serve the public interest.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Showing "Stolen Honor" would not serve the public interest. Please do not have your stations air "Stolen Honor." Airing such a partisan program would be an example of stealing honor. Your own trustworthiness would be jeopardized.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to require a meaningful review. Thank you.
